

SIMEON COURSE ON BIBLICAL EXPOSITION
GOSPELS AND ACTS: LESSON 4

Name: _____

Date: _____

1. How does the preacher's introduction capture your attention? How does it introduce you to the content of the sermon? How does the preacher refer back to this introduction throughout the rest of the sermon?

2. How does the preacher draw you into the narrative (e.g. help you imagine what is happening)? Why do you think this is helpful when preaching from a narrative section in the Gospels or Acts?

3. How does the preacher help situate Mark 15:1-15 in its literary and historical context? How does this context help you understand the point of the passage?

4. What is the significance of Jesus in this text? What is the significance of Barabbas? How does the preacher draw his conclusions concerning Jesus and Barabbas?

5. How does the preacher tell us to respond to this text? What might you add to these applications in your own context? Please explain.
